1. How many ears do you have? Go that many squares to the right.
2. Take away the number of noses you have from the number of eyes you have. Go that many squares down.
3. How many bellybuttons do you have? Go that many squares to the right.
4. Take away the number of shoes in a pair from the number of fingers you have on one hand. Go that many squares down.
5. Add the number of open books in the grid to the number of sunglasses in the grid. Go that many squares left.

THIS ACTIVITY STRENGTHENS COMPREHENSION, LOGICAL AND DIRECTIONAL THINKING, AND EARLY MATHEMATICAL CONCEPTS.
