

Oil Region Library Association

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

Purpose:

Oil Region Library Association (ORLA) uses social media to increase awareness of and accessibility to its programs, resources, and services. Additionally, the Library will periodically, at the Library's discretion, post information related to other community events, activities, and general information. The purpose of this policy is to address use of social media activities including but not limited to blogs, social networks, online communications, online catalogs, and websites by the Library and its employees, volunteers, and patrons.

Social Media Objective:

The social media outlets supported by ORLA are intended to assist in fulfilling our mission of connecting people with information, ideas, and enriching experiences. Social media is broadly defined as any web application, site or account created and maintained by the library which allows users to share or obtain information.

The content of our social media will be created and/or approved by ORLA staff. Much of the content will relate to libraries, books and other library related materials; as well as to library programs, events, photos and/or images, or special topics that the library is discussing or promoting. Other content may include community events, resources and activities sponsored by local individuals and groups, government information, community surveys and similar content.

These guidelines are created to supplement, not replace, existing library policies.

General Policy:

The library does not collect, maintain or otherwise use the personal information stored on any third-party site in any way other than to communicate with users on that site, unless permission is granted by users.

Comments and postings from the public are allowed, but will be reviewed by library staff for content appropriateness. Library staff reserves the right to review all comments and postings and delete comments that are inconsistent with the content created by the library staff. Staff may block the person who posts inconsistent comments or other material from posting any further information to the library's social media sites, but only after said person has received one warning that they are violating the policies contained herein. Comments or postings that fall within any of the following categories will be deleted by library staff and/or lead to a warning and then a ban on posting by an individual who runs afoul of these guidelines:

Oil Region Library Association

- Obscene, sexist, homophobic, racist, or otherwise bigoted content.
- Harassing comments or postings against library staff or other social media users. Harassing comments or postings that include profane or obscene statements or images, threatening physical harm toward another person, and engaging in behavior with the sole intent of harassing another person.
- Libelous statements.
- Plagiarizing or posting copy-righted material without permission or authority from the copyright holder, upon request of the copyright holder.
- Private, personal information of another person without appropriate consent or authority. Comments, postings, and/or hyperlinks not related to the content created by the library staff.
- Advertisement and solicitations not expressly permitted by the library.
- Photos, videos or other images that fall in any of the above categories

In addition to removing content or banning an individual, the Library may, according to the policies of the respective social media site or according to federal, state, or local law, report violating comments or content to the applicable site or authority.

The library recommends against posting personal information to our social media platforms and is not responsible for personal information patrons post about themselves.

Any personal information, photos or other media posted about persons under the age of 18 will be removed from our social media platforms. An exception is made for photos of library events posted by library staff where parental permission was given.

Any social media user who has been banned or had a message/content deleted may appeal this decision, in writing or email, to the Library's Executive Director. The Executive Director may affirm or reverse staff's decision within 30 days of receiving the written appeal.

A staff member will be designated to monitor and maintain all library social media for content, structure, and updates.
