

Our Next Meeting is Tuesday, April 14, 6:00pm

-In March the Elks Club donated a lovely check to be used for maintenance necessities such as a new lawn mower, shed repairs, book return drop box, and directional sign for the parking lot. Thank you Elks!

Book Sale

Open every Tues & Fri, self-serve available at other times.
During April items with Blue tags are on the last chance shelves.

The last week of every month is $1/bag.

We need staffing & shelving volunteers, see Debra

New Volunteer Opportunity: The Library has signed up with BetterWorldBooks. If you can help with this process any time the library is open please contact Debra or Amanda.

On Saturday May 2nd 11am-4pm we will set up on the lawn with some gardening books and sell chances on our Spring Basket Raffle. Volunteers needed- Please contact Debra to staff our booth or the Book Sale Room.

Spring Basket Raffle

Get your chances to win a basket full of gardening & yard items plus a Library Lotto ticket!

Ticket sales begin April 1st. The drawing will be Monday May 4th.

$5/each or 5/$20, available at the library's Circulation Desk, cash only, must be 18 or older.

Coming Soon:

Readers' Recipes: a Food Sale showcasing recipes and the books they came from, May 8, 11-4. There are many books with recipes as part of the story. For this sale the participants have created a recipe from a book of their choice. We will showcase the book & author while selling the dish (or servings) to raise some money for the library too! If you want to participate and need ideas there is a suggestion list at the library front desk or you can ask for it via an email to us. Please contact Debra if you'd like to participate.

BTW: ORLA is forming a Fundraising Committee to include Franklin & Oil City Libraries, their Friends groups and other interested parties in order to maximize outcomes across the board:

- Identify when and what we are doing
- Investigate gaps and redundancies
- Consider new ideas.

If you want to be involved contact Dan Flaherty at the Oil City Library.

And: ISO an organizer for a proposed yarn/fabric swap event this Fall. Contact you know who.
